WELCOME TO THE “NEW HAMPTON CONNECTION”

E-mail notices will be sent from this office with dates, locations and times of Town Meetings, special meetings, special events, and other important town events or information. We hope you will find these notices helpful. These e-mails will not provide notice of regular scheduled meetings, deadlines, holiday hours, general information, etc. For such scheduled information, please check the town web site www.new-hampton.nh.us or call the Town Office at 744-3559. All public meeting notices are posted at the Town Office and Public Works Department. All town newspaper notices are placed in the Laconia Daily Sun.

Please talk with other New Hampton residents who may not have been contacted to see if they are interested in receiving these e-mails. I also would encourage you to get the “word out” about important information to those who may not have e-mail.

If at some future time you change your e-mail address or you wish to be removed from the list please send an e-mail to blucas@new-hampton.nh.us.

New Hampton Historical Society presents:
WWI in the Eyes of a Mid-Westerner
Tuesday, April 19, 2016 7:00 PM
Gordon-Nash Library, 69 Main St, New Hampton

Kate Donahue will present a program about World War I and her grandfather's experiences as a Corporal with the 2nd Division, Sixth Regiment Marines on the Western Front under the command of General John "Black Jack" Pershing. Kate's grandfather, Stanley "Stub" Ellis Wall, fought at Chateau-Thierry, the Meuse-Argonne, the Aisne-Marne sector, and near Belleau Woods, France, among other now famous WWI battle sites. She will share a power point presentation, letters her grandfather wrote home to his parents from the Western Front, and interviews she conducted with the sons of the men who enlisted with her grandfather in Holland, Michigan on April 23, 1917.

Our programs are free and open to the public. Light refreshments will be served along with fundraising items for sale.

New Hampton Garden Club Spring Raffle

Win this lovely, handcrafted, wrought iron “scooter planter” donated by local blacksmith, Normand Pinette. Garden club members will fill the planter with beautiful summer flowers for you to enjoy. Tickets available from any garden club member or they may be purchased at the Gordon-Nash Library on Main St. Tickets are $1.00 each or 6 for $5.00. Drawing is Saturday, May 28 at 10:30 am at the library.

Funds from the raffle will be used to support the care and maintenance of the eight local garden sites sponsored by the club, as well as a garden therapy program at Golden Crest, and a junior garden club at the NH Community School. Meetings are held the first Tuesday of the month, 9:30 am at the library. All are welcome to join us.
