Parked along the edge Old Bristol Road on lot R-13-5A and walked an access path or woods road from Old Bristol Road to the edge Eversource powerline right of way, which is the southern boundary of the easement. We turned west and followed the edge of the right of way to the remnants of a stone wall, the western boundary of the easement. Turning north we headed along the wall downhill to the Pemigewasset River. Near the river's edge we found an iron pipe marker, and turned east following the river's edge, across a small stream, to another iron pipe marker. We then headed uphill in a southerly direction following a series of surveyor's ribbons to the southern edge of the power company's right of way.

The entire property slopes downhill from Old Bristol Road to the Pemigewasset River. The section of the easement in the Eversource right of way had been recently brush-hogged. However, the remainder of the property was cover with a mixed pines and hardwoods, and had no signs of human activity.
